WEDDING IS A SURPRISE

THAT OF MR. HUBERT E. WOOD AND MISS GRAYCE BAKER
BY REV. RUDY.

IT TAKES PLACE THIS AFTERNOON

Leave for a Bridal Trip West, but Will Return Here for a Visit and Then Go to Fort Worth, Texas, to Reside.

An impressive though quiet wedding ceremony that will cause surprise among the many friends of the contracting parties will be solemnized by the Rev. J. M. Rudy, pastor of the First Christian church, at the study of the church at 5 o'clock this afternoon, when Hubert E. Wood, traveling representative for J. Crouch & Son, in Texas, with headquarters in Fort Worth, and Miss Grayce Ellis Baker, eldest daughter of Mrs. S. L. Baker, of 235 South Vermont avenue, will be united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

The only attendants at the wedding will be Mr. Otto Kleuber, the welder, and Miss Ada Dunlap. The bride couple will leave over the Missouri Pacific at 5:40 o'clock this afternoon for Kansas City for a few days' visit, after which they will journey in Colorado for several weeks, and, returning here, will have apartments at the Antlers hotel until the middle of September, when they leave for their future home at Fort Worth.

Mr. Wood and Miss Baker retained the utmost secrecy regarding the affair, and on securing the license from County Recorder Morey urgently requested that it be withheld from the newspapers.

When the "tip" was gleaned from an outside source, and the recorder was confronted with the question if he had issued a license to the couple, both he and his deputy said they could not remember.

Miss Baker was called up by telephone, and, when asked about the wedding, "hung up" the receiver, but in spite of all opposition, the details were obtained as given above.

Mr. Wood hails from Independence, Mo., where his parents reside, but for the past six years he has resided in this city. He is a gentleman of the highest type, possessed of splendid business ability and integrity, and will doubtless make a model husband.

Miss Baker is a graduate of the Sedalia High school, also was graduated from the elocutionary department of the College of Music, and later took a year's course of study in the Columbia College of Expression at Chicago.

She is one of the Queen City's most estimable and popular young girls, whose sunny disposition and always amiable manner have endeared her to hundreds of Sedalians, both young and old, all of whom will take pleasure in joining the Democrat-Sentinel in extending congratulations, wishing that the couple may enjoy a long and happy married life.

HUNTING WIFE IN KANSAS

One Philadelphia Oil Man Says Another Stole His Spouse.

Independence, Kan., Aug. 20.—I. R. Stohling, a Philadelphia oil operator, was in Independence yesterday, looking for his wife, who, he says, eloped with John A. Sloum, another Philadelphia oil man, two weeks ago. Stohling says he traced the couple to Kansas City, and there he received information which led him to come to Independence.

He found no trace of the couple here, and went to Muskogee, I. T., last night to continue the search.

WAS A COXEY LIEUTENANT

"General" Lewis Case Fry, of St. Louis, Dead.

St. Louis, Aug. 20.—Word has just been received here of the death of "General" Lewis Case Fry, in Brice, Mo. Saturday.

He acquired the title of "general" in 1894, when he led 550 men comprising the Pacific coast division of Coxey's army, from San Francisco to Washington.

He had been ill from dropsy six months. His widow and daughter survive him.

Thursday High Five Club.

Miss Grace McKenzie will entertain the members of the Thursday High Five club and a few married lady friends at her home Thursday afternoon, complimentary to Mrs. Clay Goodloe, of St. Louis, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Gibson.

Burial of Mr. Vance.

The funeral of H. M. Vance, who died yesterday, was held from the family residence, Sixteenth and Ingram avenue, at 3 p. m. today. Rev. G. W. Mathis officiating. Interment was in the city cemetery and the pallbearers whose names were previously printed in this paper served.

A LIFE TERM IN PRISON

ROBERT SASSAMAN, WHO WAS CONVICTED OF MURDER AT WARRENSBURG.

THE DEFENDANT WAS NOT MOVED

Simply Smiled When Jury Filed Into Court and Announced Him Guilty of the Killing of Carl Miller.

After being locked up at Warrensburg since last Friday evening, the jury in the case of Robert Sassaman, a former St. Louisan, charged with the murder of Carl Miller, returned a verdict of guilty at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon, and placed the punishment at ninety-nine years in the penitentiary. Sassaman took the verdict coolly, and smiled at the jurymen as they left the box.

J. A. Collins, one of the jurors, said that although the jury was unanimous in believing that Sassaman was guilty, it did not for a moment consider the question of hanging him, the new law relieving them of that responsibility.

The first ballot showed that every jurymen was against capital punishment. The second showed six for conviction and six for acquittal. The argument of those wanting to acquit was that the sentence imposed upon them by the court's instructions was to severe when the prosecution's witness, Annie Bentley Robbins, in their estimation, was equally guilty with the defendant.

MRS. EDDY ESCAPED COURT

Alienists to Examine Christian Science Leader.

Concord, N. T., Aug. 20.—That Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy will not need to appear in court has been settled by counsel in the case. The Christian Science head will be examined in her home by a board of alienists to test her mental condition. As experts in insanity Dr. Henry Stedman, of Brookline; Dr. George T. Tuttle, of the McLean hospital in Waverly; Dr. George F. Jelly, of Boston; and Harry R. Hopkins, of Buffalo, will examine Mrs. Eddy.

Dr. Stedman is regarded as an authority in America and is widely known in Europe. He was at one time superintendent of the Morning-side Hospital for the Insane in Scotland, and has served years as resident physician at the Danvers Hospital for the Insane.

Attorneys for Mrs. Eddy and counsel for the plaintiffs split even by this latest development. The defense is glad to keep the head of the Christian Science church out of court and their opponents feel triumphant in obtaining permission to have an expert board of lunacy examine her.

THE LABOR DAY PROGRAM

Cards Setting Forth the Attractions
Have Been Printed.

Cards announcing the Labor Day celebration to be held in this city on September 2 are being distributed throughout the city. The celebration will be held at Liberty park. The address of the day will be delivered by E. T. Behrens.

A program consisting of trotting and pacing races, slow mule race, bicycle race, fat men's race, egg race and marble race for girls, and sack race for boys, has been arranged.

A parade over the principal downtown streets of the city will be given, beginning at 10:30 o'clock. At night a dance will be given at the park hall.

THE UNKNOWN DEAD BOY

JUDGING FROM INQUIRIES, A NUMBER OF LADS MUST BE MISSING.

CHIEF BOULT GETS EIGHT LETTERS

Several Contained a Sedalia Dispatch to the Kansas City Times—No New Developments in the Case.

Chief of Police Boulton is in receipt of no less than eight letters, several sent by special delivery, from different persons, inquiring about the unknown boy killed by a Katy train four miles southwest of here last Thursday night.

In addition, Chief Boulton has been kept busy answering long distance telephone calls from persons desirous of knowing if the dead boy was related to them.

The inquiries come from Kansas City, Mo., Kansas City Kas., Armourdale, Kas., and Lawrence, Kas., and several contained a Sedalia dispatch clipped from the Kansas City Times, which told of the killing and of two "tourists" having informed Fireman Routree, of the crew that found the corpse, that they had met in Nevada a boy who answered the description of the dead boy, who said he lived in Kansas City, but was coming to Sedalia.

One of the interrogators, Mrs. Flora Calloway, of Kansas City, Kas., enclosed the picture of a boy, asking if the description of the dead answered that of the picture.

Another lady enclosed a piece of cloth resembling the suit of clothes worn by her missing boy.

Chief Boulton consulted Coroner Tittsworth and Undertaker Patton, but neither was unable to identify the lad from the picture, as one half of the boy's face had been mutilated beyond identification when the corpse was found.

EXPERT TO BE CALLED

Books of a Circuit Clerk Are Said to Be All Awry.

Owensboro, Ky., Aug. 20.—A condition of affairs exists in the office of Circuit Clerk S. W. Bedford, which will necessitate a thorough examination of the books by an expert accountant and probably an inspection of the office by State Inspector Henry B. Hines.

Mr. Bedford has said to a number of attorneys that there are discrepancies in the accounts of costs, the records on the books in several known instances failing to tally with checks given in payment and receipts in possession of attorneys and others.

Mr. Bedford has stated to attorneys and others that D. O'Connell Daugherty, who recently resigned as chief deputy and went to San Antonio, Texas, is responsible for this condition of affairs.

To what extent money has been collected and not turned over Mr. Bedford says that he does not know and will not know until the books have been examined by an expert.

Mr. Bedford, it is understood, has written to Mr. Daugherty asking him to come back to Owensboro in order that matters between them may be adjusted. Daugherty, it is said, has not responded to the letter. In addition to his position as deputy clerk Daugherty was trustee of the jury funds, in which position he was succeeded by Oliver C. Haynes. No funds were turned over to Mr. Haynes.

THE CASE OF MRS. TUCKER

Secretary Taft Tells Her She Hasn't Enough Evidence.

Washington, Aug. 20.—Before leaving Washington Secretary Taft addressed a letter to the wife of Paymaster William F. Tucker, stating that the secretary had found that the evidence upon which she demanded Col. Tucker's trial was not sufficient to warrant granting her demand.

A Death Message Received.

A telegram was received here last night for C. B. Lyons, the American Express Co. messenger, who had gone to St. Louis on his run, apprising him of the death of a brother in Kansas City, but no particulars were given.

Sedalians in the Far West.

Col. Adolph Riecke, who, with his wife, is touring the west, on a card to his old friend, Judge O. M. Harris, written at Long Beach, Cal., says 'they are having the time of their lives.'

They are both in excellent health and having a most interesting trip. They have taken in all points of interest while en route, and will continue to do so until they have had enough, and then turn their course homeward.

Johnson Succeeds Baumgartner.

The barbers' state board of examiners has appointed L. E. Johnson a deputy for this city, succeeding Al Baumgartner, resigned.

BONAPARTE TO RETIRE

NEW YORK JOURNAL OF COMMERCE ASSERTS THAT HE WILL GO.

NOT IN ACCORD WITH PRESIDENT

Roosevelt Particularly Objects to His Recent Flippant and Undignified Attitude Regarding Trusts
and Doubtful Legal Acts.

New York, Aug. 20.—The Journal of Commerce today published a story regarding the possible retirement of Attorney General Bonaparte from the cabinet.

According to important interests in this city, close to the administration, the usefulness of Attorney General Bonaparte as a member of the president's cabinet is ended. The Journal says, in part:

It is not expected that immediate retirement will result, for such action might be construed as a sign of weakness in the president's anti-trust policy, a construction particularly distasteful to Roosevelt, since for it there is no question, according to excellent information obtained, that the president is not only not in sympathy with the recent flippant and undignified attitude and the at least doubtful legal procedures displayed by the attorney general, but is in all respects opposed to them and desires to be relieved of his presence as a member of his official family.

A GOOD TOWN TO LIVE IN

Profits From Lighting Plant Relieves Citizens.

Winning, W. Va., Aug. 20.—Harrisville, the county seat of Ritchie county, will be without any municipal taxation this year, for the first time in the old town's history.

The announcement has just been made by the mayor, Romeo H. Freer, a former attorney general of the state. Harrisville owns its own electric lighting plant, and the profit from its operation, combined with the interest on the town's money in the banks, will afford ample revenue for all estimated municipal expenses, so that no corporate tax will be laid whatever. No other town in West Virginia ever enjoyed this distinction.

WERE ARRESTED AGAIN

Young Men Who Stole Shoes From Missouri Pacific Car.

George Murphy and Frank Notsinger, the two young men sentenced to six months in jail and later paroled by Judge Bradley, Saturday, charged with stealing shoes from a Missouri Pacific car, were rearrested Saturday by Marshal Ryan, on orders from the sheriff of Cole county, where they have a similar charge hanging over them, says Monday's Warrensburg Star.

The deputy sheriff of Cole county arrived Sunday and took the young men to Jefferson City, where they will probably get a few years in the penitentiary.

A Fine Program Tonight.

The ladies' auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, unless rain interferes, will give a social and musical entertainment at the home of Mrs. G. W. Anderson, on South Prospect street, tonight. Should rain fall, the affair will be given tomorrow night.

A SEDALIAN IN ST. LOUIS

MR. GEORGE J. PETERSON WAS RELIEVED OF KODAK IN MOUND CITY.

A CASE THAT PUZZLES THE POLICE

Seek Some One to Prosecute Girl Who Ran Away With Camera
—A Story in the Democrat Today.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat of this morning had the following:

While the police are trying to find the owner of a $1 kodak, Rubie Schramm, 17 years old, of 208 South Twenty-third street, and Amelia Ferris, aged 18, who says she lives at Grand and Lawton avenues, are being held in the detention room. The girls were brought to the central district station yesterday by Policeman John Dunn, who says he captured the Schramm girl after a chase of several blocks in the vicinity of Union station.

George J. Peterson, of Sedalia, Mo., who accompanied the officer and the prisoners to the Four Courts, said that, while he was eating in a restaurant at 17 South Twentieth street, the Schramm girl picked up the kodak and ran. He chased her and attracted the attention of Policeman Dunn. The other girl remained at the restaurant and was found there after Miss Schramm was captured.

Peterson declared that he did not want to prosecute the girl, saying that he wanted to leave the city tonight.

"You'll have to prosecute the girl," Sergt. Conlon told him.

"The kodak don't belong to me, anyway," Peterson said, pointing to a one-eyed man. "It belongs to him."

The one-eyed man explained that the kodak was not his property, and that he had borrowed it from a man named John Smith.

"John Smith borrowed it from a friend of his in Sedalia," the one-eyed man explained, "and I loaned it to Peterson."

The police are holding the kodak for evidence, and also the girls.

STILL BEHIND BARS

A Kansas City Convict Must Now Have New Freedom Papers.

Jefferson City, Aug. 20.—John Simpkins, a convict, has been held in the penitentiary here since July 10, notwithstanding the fact that Governor Folk commuted his sentence to release on that date. Simpkins became ill.

The prison inspectors and physician recommended his release to the governor, but before the governor acted on the recommendation, word came that the prisoner was wanted at the Indiana penitentiary for breaking his parole.

The governor then commuted his sentence to expire July 10, with instructions to Warden Hall to deliver the prisoner to the Indiana authorities.

Efforts had been made in the meantime to obtain a pardon for Simpkins, pleas for his release coming from the Salvation Army headquarters of Mrs. Ballington Booth in New York, and also from Philadelphia, where he was promised a home if released. The authorities of the Indiana prison discovered that the prisoners ill, and word came today that they did not want any sick prisoners in that institution, and that the claim for Simpkins had been canceled.

Warden Hall can not release the prisoner until Governor Folk gives a new order.

In September of 1905 Simpkins pleaded guilty of burglary before Judge Wolford, of Kansas City, and was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.

A SPAT AND THEN POISON

Woman Tried to Die After Quarreling
With a Neighbor.

Sumner, Mo., Aug. 20.—Mrs. Lizzie Shouse, the wife of P. F. Shouse, a blacksmith, quarreled with Mrs. N. H. Archer, a neighbor, over several chickens yesterday afternoon. She then went home and took strychnine. She may recover.

One Case in Police Court.
A plain drunk was fined $5 by Judge Gresham in police court today.

Prisoner Go Off Lightly.

In the case of Henry Wilson, alias Harry Wilson, the charge of burglarizing the residence of J. H. Rothwell at Knob Noster was dismissed, says the Warrensburg Star. Through his attorney, J. H. Knais, he pleaded guilty to petit larceny. He was sentenced to three months in the county jail.

"Cap" Witcher Quite Ill.

Mrs. June Harris is in receipt of a letter from her father, C. V. Witcher, a former Sedalian, who is critically ill with typhoid fever in Minnesota. Owing to Mrs. Harris being ill, she will not be able to go to her parent.

ATTACK ON AN ORPHAN

CALLAWAY COUNTY CHILD ACCUSES
HER 48-YEAR-OLD
GUARDIAN.

THE CASE IS TRULY REVOLTING

Prisoner Asked to Be Removed to Another County in the Event
There Was Any Excitement Over Arrest.

Fulton, Mo., Aug. 20.—Bishop Leonard, 48 years old, a well-to-do farmer living near Wainwright in the southern part of Callaway county, yesterday waived preliminary examination when he was brought before a justice of the peace, charged with attacking Lockie Koehling, a 12-year-old orphan girl, who has been in his care since she was 2 years old.

Leonard was arrested in Fulton Sunday night, and yesterday was remanded to jail. He will be tried at the next term of the circuit court. The girl is the principal witness against Leonard. Before Prosecuting Attorney Tinscher she made affidavit Monday, charging Leonard, who is her guardian, with the crime.

Guy Koehling the girl's brother, testified to having seen improper conduct on Leonard's part toward his sister.

The girl, at the request of Guy and another brother, was surrendered to them by Mrs. Leonard, and taken to Cedar City. Guy had been living with Leonard.

When arrested Leonard asked the jailer to take him to the jail at Mexico if his arrest caused any excitement.

STOLE JEWELS AT HOTEL

Entertained Girls and Confessed to the Theft.

Sandusky, Ohio, Aug. 20.—M. L. Cohen, of 2243 East Forty-sixth street, Cleveland, with his wife, a guest at the Breakers, Cedar Point, Saturday gave a bag containing a gold watch, four diamond rings, and other jewelry and $56 in money, said to be a total value of $1,075, to the clerk to keep for him, while he and Mrs. Cohen took a dip in the surf. When they later sought the bag and contents it was gone.

James T. Foster, of New York, a second clerk, and Clarence Stovall, a bellboy, returned to the Breakers early Sunday morning drunk. It was learned that they had been entertaining lad friends in Sandusky, also that they had been hard up for several days preceding Saturday.

Stovall's room was searched and the stolen property was recovered. Stovall then confessed, implicating Foster. Both are under arrest.

County Court Doings.

The judges of the Pettis county court yesterday afternoon granted John Stobel a dramsop license to conduct a saloon in the building formerly occupied by J. W. Sieber's saloon.

The court also granted a $3 bounty to Samuel A. White, of Flat Creek, for a wolf's scalp.

Licensed to Wed.

A marriage license was issued today to F. G. Willis, of Fort Worth, Tex., and Mary A. Bohling, of Smithton.

Off On a Vacation.

Coroner Guy Tittsworth is off on a few days' vacation, but where he is no one seems to know.

BENEATH THE WHEELS

IT WAS THUS A WELL KNOWN
MAN OF COOPER COUNTY MET HIS DEATH.

BODY WAS HORRIBLY MANGLED

Walker Salmon, Aged 35 Years, Engaged in Farming Near Clark's Fork, Was Killed, By a Katy Train.

Walker Salmon, aged about 35 years, a well known young farmer of near Clark's Fork, met death in a horrible manner at Kingsbury station, just across the river in Howard county, at a late hour Saturday night, says Monday's Boonville Democrat.

He had been in Boonville all day and was seen here by the police as late as midnight. How he got across the Katy bridge to that place is a mystery. There are many rumors surrounding his actions, but, traced down, all have proved unfounded.

His body was found about 6 o'clock Sunday morning lying on the tracks of the Katy railroad in a horribly mangled state, and the surroundings showed plainly that he had been struck by a northbound train and his body dragged for nearly a mile before it was dropped.

His hat and particles of his flesh were found near the north end of the bridge, while the body lay at the south end of the station switch.

A coroner's inquest was held, and the body was turned over to an undertaker from this city and brought here.

This morning the remains were removed to his home near Clark's Fork, where the funeral was held this afternoon.

The deceased was well known and leaves a devoted wife and a little babe a week old to mourn his loss.

"AGGIE" TIRES OF PRISON

May Try to Interest Her Friends in Getting a Pardon From Folk.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 20.—Aggie Myers is suspected of taking her first step toward getting out of the Missouri penitentiary, where she is under life sentence. She has written friends in Kansas City to the effect that the hard work to which she is assigned and the close confinement of the prison are undermining her health. She is employed at one of the big sewing machines in the overall factory.

The fact that Folk commuted the sentences of Edgar Bailey, "Lord" Barrington and other murderers, including Aggie Myers and Frank Hottel, probably gives the Myers woman hope of extreme executive clemency from the governor before he goes out of office.

MESSAGE NOT RECEIVED

Telegram Told of the Death of Mrs.
Vollmer's Mother.

Mrs. Peter Vollmer received a letter yesterday from Marshall, Mo., apprising her of the sudden death of her mother, Mrs. Valentine Heilmann, aged 92 years.

A telegram had been sent Mrs. Vollmer, which was not received, consequently she was not aware of her mother's death in time to attend the funeral, which took place last Saturday, interment being made in the Catholic cemetery at Marshall.

INJURED HANDLING SHELLS

Three May Die as the Result of a Fort Totten Explosion.

New York, Aug. 20.—The accidental explosion of three 19-pound shells in the ordnance storehouse of Fort Totten at Willets Point, L. I., yesterday, severely injured three artillerymen who were unloading shells.

William B. Lank, a private of the 101st company, coast artillery, may die.

Gradually Growing Weaker.

Mrs. Corinne Edwards, who has been bedfast at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ben Correll, 1610 South Osage avenue, for some time, is gradually growing weaker.

RAPID FIRE MARRIAGES.

New York has a new marriage law which might serve a good purpose on the statute books of Missouri. The measure provides that persons intending to marry must first obtain a license and then must wait five days to think it over. This rings the curtain down on the extravaganza entitled "Marry in Champagne and Repent in Seltzer," and likewise puts an end to the marriage on a bet, the marriage over the telephone, the marriage on roller skates—in short,
a person can not be ordered between courses, like an extra bottle of wine or a hansom cab. It will likewise put a crimp in the divorce business.

Our rapid fire system of marriages
is the mother of our rapid fire system of granting divorces while you wait. It is responsible for the most of the bigamous marriages that take place daily and for many of the other ills of the social fabric. The new law gives the contracting parties time to stop and think, and then think again.
For five days the real problem will be before them, and not just for five minutes, as it frequently is.

Five days is a period of time that enables the average individual to sober up and look himself over. It goes without saying that many of the midnight marriages heretofore recorded would never have been contracted if the bridegroom had time for sobering up, standing up and looking himself over.

Parsons with itching palms have done much to make marriage easy—
and ridiculous. The New York law subjects ministers who violate its provisions to a fine of $500 or imprisonment for one year.

As all public records are open and as the newspapers will not be slow
to obtain lists, professional bigamists will hereafter find New York hard stealing. It is a good law and should be passed around so that every state in the union may partake of its benefits.

A NEWSPAPER NOVELTY.

A telephone newspaper is flourishing at Budapest. When it was started some time ago the world predicted that it would fizzle out in a short time. But the contrary is true. So marked is its success that the "Telefon Hirondo," as it is called, is attracting universal attention, and it is not at all unlikely that the time will come when similar newspapers will be established in the larger cities of the United States.

The "Telefon Hirondo," as described in a magazine article, is literally what its name implies, a "caller of the news." From 8 in the morning until 10 at night its news is being shouted over thousands of phone wires in Budapest, and its subscribers are estimated at 200,000 persons. Each morning a schedule is sent out, stating at what hour the various kinds of news will be proclaimed, thus enabling subscribers to hear whatever they wish without waiting at the wire.

"Extras" are issued also whenever any particularly important event
transpires; that is, an alarm bell rings, announcing the coming of special announcements, and summoning patrons to the wire.

But the "Telefon Hirondo" aspires to be something more than a daily herald of current events. From 4:30 to 6:30 each evening band music is supplied subscribers, and from 7 to 8:15, and again from 8:30 to 9:50 opera. Once each week also special lectures or concerts for children go over the wires, and ministers, lecturers or actors preach or tell stories.
Most unique of all, perhaps, are the "advertisements," which are read between two important news items,
thus insuring the attention of the paper's subscribers. Advertising rates are 50 cents for each twelve seconds
of the announcer's time.

HOMELINESS NO CRIME.

It is not likely that an American jury would be so lenient as this jury over in Hungary. A peasant murdered his 18-year-old daughter and gave
as his defense that she was so ugly
no man would marry her. The jury, in view of these extenuating circumstances, rendered a verdict of simple manslaughter.

While this might be a very convenient method of eliminating homely women from society, it is hardly thought America is far enough advanced to adopt it. In older countries, like Hungary, doubtless the custom might be accepted with a reasonable amount of favor, but we are too new yet. And the mere fact that a woman has plain features is not a sufficient cause to blot her off the earth.

As a matter of fact, we know some awful homely women who are pure gold and the salt of the earth. They are always ready with their help and sympathy. They sacrifice their own desires without the slightest hesitancy, where by so doing they can make some one else happy. It's not the pretty girls who always make the best wives. Indeed, there are hundreds of fair maidens who are hundreds of fair maiden who are without the least compunctions. The world is full, too full, of Evelyn Nesbit Thaws and Nan Pattersons. What we need is more of the homely virtues in womankind. At all events, the maiden with an unattractive landscape ought to have some decidedly moral defects as well before her parents would be justified in removing her from the sphere which she fails to illuminate.

CUCUMBERS KILL TWINS

Boys Had Always Been Well Together and Sick Together.

Trenton, Aug. 20.—Judson and Jesse Buckalew, twin children of Mr.
and Mrs. Joseph Buckalew, of this city, are dead after eating cucumbers
while on a visit to an aunt.

The twins were two years old, and since their birth had always been ill

ABSENCE OF HIS GUARD

TO THAT FACT WAS DUE ASSAS-SINATION OF PRESIDENT
"ABE" LINCOLN.

SO WRITES MR. WILLIAM H. CROOK

Parker Knew That He Had Failed in His Duty, and the Next Day, It Is Said, He Looked Like a Convicted Criminal.

Now that I have told the story of my three months' association with Abraham Lincoln, there are two things of which I feel that I must speak, writes W. H. Crook in Harper's Magazine.

The first question relates to the circumstances of the assassination of President Lincoln. It has never been made public before.

I have often wondered why the negligence of the guard that accompanied the president to the theater on the night of the 14th has never been divulged. So far as I know, it was never investigated by the police department. Yet, had he done his duty, I believe President Lincoln might not have been murdered by Booth. The man was John Parker.
He was a native of the district, and had volunteered, as I believe each of the other guards had done, in response to the president's first call for troops from the district. He is dead now, and, as far as I have been able to discover, all of his family.
So it is no unkindness to speak of the costly mistake he made.

It was the custom of the guard who accompanied the president to the theater to remain in the little passageway outside the box—the passageway through which Booth entered. Mr. Buckingham, who was the doorkeeper at Ford's theater, remembers that a chair was placed there for the guard on the evening of the 14th. Whether Parker occupied it I do not know. Mr. Buckingham is of the opinion that he did.
If he did he left it almost immediately, for he confessed to me the next day that he went to a seat at the front of the first gallery so that he could see the play. The door of Mr. Lincoln's box was shut; probably the president never knew that the guard had left his post.

Mr. Buckingham tells that Booth was in and out of the house five times before he finally shot the president. Each time he looked about the theater in a restless, excited manner. I think there can be no doubt that he was studying the scene of his intended crime, and that he observed that Parker, whom he must have been watching, was not at his post. To me it is very probable that the fact that there was no one on guard may have determined the time of his attack. Booth had found it necessary to stimulate himself with whiskey in order to reach the proper pitch of fanaticism. Had he found a man at the door of the president's box armed with a Colt's revolver, his alcohol courage might have evaporated.

However that may be, Parker's absence had much to do with the success of Booth's purpose. The assassin was armed with a dagger and a pistol. The story used to be that the dagger was intended for General Grant when the president had been dispatched. That is absurd. While it had been announced that General and Mrs. Grant would be in the box, Booth, during his five visits of inspection, had certainly had an opportunity to observe that the general was absent. The dagger, which was noiseless, was intended for anyone who might intercept him before he could fire. The pistol, which was noisy and would arouse pursuit, was for the president. As it happened, since the attack was a complete surprise, Major Rathbone, who, the president having been shot, attempted to prevent Booth's escape, received the dagger in his arm.

Had Parker been at his post at the back of the box, Booth still being determined to make the attempt that night, he would have been stabbed, probably killed. The noise of the struggle—Parker could surely have managed to make some outcry—would have given the alarm. Major Rathbone was a brave man, and the president was a brave man and of enormous muscular strength, it would have been an easy thing for the two men to have disarmed Booth, who was not a man of great physical strength. It was the suddenness of his attack on the president that made it so devilishly successful.

It makes me feel rather bitter
when I remember that the president had said, just a few hours before,
that he knew he could trust all his guards. And then to think that in that one moment of test one of us should have utterly failed him! Parker knew that he had failed in duty.
He looked like a convicted criminal

BOUNDARY LAW OUTCOME

Between Maryland and West Virginia
Hang: on Latin Phrase.

"Ad primam fontem." On these three Latin words will hang the decision in the long drawn out suit between Maryland and West Virginia regarding the boundary between the two states.

For over a hundred years the question has periodically occupied the attention of the heads of the legal departments of the two states, and now comes word that the controversy is nearing the end.

For several months past counsel for both states have been engaged in taking depositions bearing on the dispute. These have now been completed and will be filed in the United States supreme court, on September 17, when the counsel for both states will meet in Washington, D. C.

"Ad primam fontem" translated means "the first waters," and its connection with the boundary suit is in regard to the early description of boundaries between Maryland and West Virginia.

Those who have stomach trouble,
no matter how slight, should give every possible help to the digestive organs, so that the food may be di-

that contains natural digestive properties—something like Kodol for Ina preparation of vegetable acids and contains the very same juices found in a healthy stomach. It digests what you eat. Sold by Arlington Phar-

ATTACK ON A MINISTER

TERRE HAUTE, IND., MAYOR SAID
THE REV. CHARLES KEAN WAS A LIAR.

ALSO A SCOUNDREL AND GRAFTER

Prohibition Row Promises to Cause Upheaval—Town Divided on Question and the End Is Not Yet in Sight.

Terre Haute, Ind., Aug. 20.—When Rev. Charles Kean, of London, in Mayor Lyon's office, refused the official's request for affidavits supporting statements made at Sunday night's mass meeting on the wide-open conditions which he said he had found in a week of sleuthing, the mayor shook his fist in the minister's face, called him a liar, scoundrel and grafter, who made a living slandering cities.

The mayor caused him to be sworn before the police judge in the court of inquiry, and warrants were issued on what he testified he had seen and then had him bound over as a witness.

Secretary Dodge, of the Y. M. C.
A., Ministerial Association and Chi-zens' league people were standing by Rev. Kean.

The newspapers make a pointed charge that he lied in his denial at the meeting that he had furnished stories to them, and say he revised the articles.

The town is to have an upheaval
like that which resulted in the impeachment of Lyon's predecessor for failure to enforce the closing law.

WILL INVESTIGATE "LID"

F. M. Wolf to Act in Alleged Derelict Official's Case.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 20.—The appointment of Attorney Francis M.
Wolf, of Tuxedo Park, by Judge Robert
S. Ryors, acting judge of the Clayton circuit court, to assist the St. Louis county grand jury in investigating the office of Prosecuting Attorney Rowland L. Johnston and the manner in which he conducts the business of his office, came as a complete surprise soon after Judge Ryors convened court Monday morning.

Mr. Wolf said yesterday that the appointment was entirely unexpected.
His active duties would not begin, he said, until Aug. 27, and between now and then he would have plenty of time to decide on what course he would pursue.

It caused quite a shock to some of the county politicians when they learned that Mr. Wolf served a term in the Missouri Legislature as a democrat, being elected from the Springfield district in 1900. He said yesterday that he votes the republican ticket now.

FINGER NAIL SCRATCH
RESULTS IN DEATH

A short time ago you may have read of the remarkable case where a simple scratch of the finger nail caused death by blood poisoning. At first it was only an annoying itch caused by summer rash. This was scratched
by the finger nails to relieve the itch,
but the skin was torn open, the irritation became worse and finally resulted in a fatal case of blood poisoning.

Do not scratch or rub the itch or irritation caused by summer rash, mosquito bites, hives, prickly heat or any form of skin disease or itch. Dr.
D. D. Prescription, the best known remedy for eczema and all forms of skin disease, externally applied, will at once stop the irritable itch. It soothes and cools the skin and permanently cures the itch or disease.
Infants and children are saved many hours of agony and torture from the unbearable itch by a few drops of
D. D. D. applied to the afflicted parts.
Remember—the itch is instantly relieved.

KNOCKOUT BLOW TO SCHMITZ

Supreme Court Sustains Appointment of Mayor Taylor.

San Francisco, Aug. 20.—The California supreme court has rendered a decision in the McKannay salary case sustaining the legality of the removal of Mayor Schmitz and the appointment of Mayor Taylor.

When the prosecution in the San Francisco graft cases deposed Schmitz as mayor and had Prof. Taylor appointed, the ousted mayor asserted that the action was not legal, that he was still mayor and would continue to operate the city government from his jail cell. Some of the city officials who were friends of Schmitz refused to accept the orders of the new mayor. A test case was made in the instance of one of the minor city officials, who attempted to get his salary voucher cashed without the signature of Schmitz. The supreme court decision followed.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING

REGULAR SEMI-MONTHLY SESSION WAS HELD LAST EVENING.

HAD A LARGE BATCH OF BUSINESS

The Matter of Licensing Soap Clubs Was Brought Up, but Went Over Until the Next Regular Meeting.

At last night's regular meeting of the city council, Alderman DeJarnette, as anticipated in yesterday's issue of the Democrat-Sentinel, called the council's attention to the enormous business done by mail order houses throughout the country in Sedalia, also to the buying of goods out of town through the different "soap" clubs and other organizations.

Mr. DeJarnette said he was in favor of compelling the agents of the "soap" clubs here to pay a merchant's license, the same as local merchants do.

City Counselor McGruder said that under the interstate commerce law it might not be possible to collect a license, and the matter went over until the next meeting, pending investigation.

An ordinance was ordered drawn for sidewalks in certain localities in Northwest Sedalia.

An extension of thirty days' time to complete the grading and macadamizing of Sixteenth street, from Grand to Barrett avenue, was granted at the request of the contractor, who said rainy weather had deterred him in his work.

Wichita tribe No. 108, I. O. R. M., was granted free of charge the use of Liberty park for holding a carnival from August 26-31, inclusive.

Hereafter all grading boxes are to be constructed of concrete or stone.

The council ordered an appropriation of $200 for the construction of a stone culvert at Eleventh street and Marvin avenue, and instructed Clerk Baker to advertise for bids for doing the work.

An ordinance was ordered prepared providing for sidewalks on the north side of Main street, from the Stevenson Packing company's plant to Prospect avenue.

Engineer Zoll's estimate of $1.30 per square yard for grading and paving Fifth street from Ohio to Hancock avenue was received and filed.

Milk Inspector White's report was also filed.

A resolution was also ordered for paving Montauk avenue from Broadway to Sixteenth street.

Drs. F. R. Morley, Guy Titsworth, Wallace Simonds and T. T. Miller were nominated as candidates for the office of city physician, vice Dr. W. M. Cole, deceased. Dr. Morley was confirmed by the council.

An ordinance appointing a board of managers to have full control of the city cemetery was read and laid on the table until the next meeting.

A remonstrance against paving West Third street was referred to the city engineer. West Third street property owners state that they are willing to repair the street, but object to repaving with brick.

Resolutions were adopted to repair the following streets: Seventh, between Ohio and Lafayette; Sixth, between Ohio and Park avenues; Seventh, between Grand and Park avenues; Fifth, between Ohio and Grand avenues; Fifth, between Ohio and Hancock avenues; Fourth, between Ohio and Park avenues.

A petition from East Second street property owners, asking permission for Apache tribe No. 55, I. O. R. M., to hold a carnival on that thoroughfare during the week of the state fair, was presented.

A resolution giving the use of Second street, from Lamine to Mill avenue, for the carnival, was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Hugelmann, the bill of $14.70 of C. P. Werner, the plumber, for doing some city work, which bill has been before the city council numerous times and either turned down or payment deferred, was finally allowed.

A petition from the city hospital board for funds to meet current expenses was referred to the finance committee.

The invitation for the mayor and city officials to attend and participate in the Labor day parade was accepted.

J. W. Menefee's bid of 13 cents a square yard for paving in front of engine house No. 2 was accepted.

On motion of Mr. Sullivan, Clerk Baker was ordered to advertise for bids for the removal of dead animals from the city streets for a period of five years.

An ordinance was drawn providing for smoke consumers to be placed on all city smokestacks.

Clerk Baker was instructed to advertise for bids for supplying the city with coal for the coming season.

Mr. Sullivan, of the Second ward, petitioned the mayor and councilmen to pay a little attention to the repairing of streets in his ward. He was promised that repairs would be made there.

At 11:10 o'clock council adjourned.

THE YOUNG LAWBREAKER

AN INNOVATION FOR PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEMS IS PROPOSED.

'TIS IDEA OF SUPT. C. B. GIBSON

Columbus, Ga., Considering Establishment of School for Youthful Lawbreakers as Part of Its Educational System.

Columbus, Ga., Aug. 20.—A special school for juvenile offenders as a part of the educational system in this city, is the suggestion made by Superintendent C. B. Gibson, of the Columbus public schools, in his annual report, just filed with the board of education. Reformatories aplenty there are in the land, but such an institution in connection with a public school system would be a novelty in the south.

The Columbus public schools are noted through the nation for their originality and progressive ideas, and with the schoolboard in hearty sympathy with the superintendent, his latest idea will no doubt receive the sanction of the board.

"It is a lamentable fact," says Superintendent Gibson in his report, "that the number of juvenile offenders brought into police courts and other courts of the city is increasing every year, and it is with the police authorities a perplexing problem to know what is best to do with such youthful offenders. If confined in the ordinary prisons, they rapidly become criminals; if corporally punished, and left in their former environment, they go from bad to worse; if admonished, and allowed to go free, they feel that offending is a matter of small concern. I am of the opinion that the next step in the development of our school system should be the providing of a special ungraded school for youthful offenders who come before the police authorities. This school should be under the board of trustees, and a part of the public school system, and should be also an adjunct to the police court. It should be in a remote quarter of the city, where ample grounds should be provided, and should be a special industrial and agricultural home school. In the beginning one person, if the proper person could be found, could take charge of the school and attend to all of its duties until the number of pupils became large enough to justify the increase of the force and of the cost. It should not be designated as a reform school, a reformatory or a training school, or by any term that would lessen the self-respect of the young offender. The school should do everything in its power to develop self respect. In such a school, properly managed, doubtless many children, some of them of well to do families, who have not seriously offended against the laws of the land, might find their greatest opportunity for the development of character."

Superintendent Gibson takes the broad view that the reformation of character can best be accomplished by those who direct the education of the youth.

HEARD AT THE HUCKINS.

Traveling Men Speak in High Praise of Sedalia.

A group of traveling men at the Huckins last night agreed that Sedalia was one of the most up-to-date cities in the country. One of them said, "I can generally tell whether a town is up with the times by noticing the brand of cigars that is most popular. If the leading store sells more Wadsworth Bros.' Chicos than they do of any other cigar I put down the residents of that city as progressive and up-to-date and desirous of the good things of life."

Wadsworth Bros.' Chicos are sold in Sedalia by the W. E. Bard Drug company, and the man at the cigar case told me he was selling twice as many Chicos as any other two kinds. This shows that Sedalia smokers want a good Havana filled cigar that burns freely, is mild and pleasant and makes an enjoyable smoke.

Wadsworth Bros.' Chico is the only cigar I know of costing less than 20 cents that fills the bill. "Just see how fragrant it is," he said, as he puffed a lot of smoke over the group.

Chicos sell for but five cents, even though, as our friend the traveling man, said, "it is the favorite with those who want the best cigar they can get for their money."

STORING SEED POTATOES.

How the Tubers May Be Kept in Splendid Condition.

If potatoes intended for seed are placed in pits and properly covered, they will come out in the spring without a sprout; they will also be as firm as when placed in the pits. This condition certainly indicates that no vitality has been lost.

Every sprout that starts on a potato and is broken off removes just so much vitality from the seed. I find that it is necessary to dig the pit more than six or eight inches deep. That is just deep enough to get a good, solid bottom, so that the potatoes can be shoveled up easily with a potato scoop. Fifty to 100 bushels may be put into one pit safely.

When the pit is full cover with about eight inches of straw, then put on eight inches of dirt. The third layer should be another layer of straw and then another layer of dirt. If the temperature falls below zero for a length of time, cover the pit with stable manure. By following this method, says a correspondent of Prairie Farmer, I never have any potatoes that spoil or have been injured in any way.

FARM WISDOM.

A debt enriches for a moment and impoverishes for a year.

Never explain—your friends do not require it and your enemies will not believe you anyway.

You can always tell a good farm hand by the way he works when the farmer has gone to town.

Folks who never do any more than they get paid for, never get paid for any more than they do.

There must be more of good than evil in the world, or the good would have been overcome ages ago.

Nine times out of ten, the fellow who is let in on the ground floor falls between the girders and lands in the cellar.

Let us not exaggerate about our farming for the sake of making a spread. If ours is the best farm and we the best farmer, every one will know it, and if not, all our talk about it won't make it so.

The summer has been trying both to the flesh and to the spirit. Try letting go of things for a week or so, and you will be surprised to find, when you return from your vacation how much the atmosphere has cleared. It is a good thing to ease up on the collar a little.

Lots of times, when the weather is warm, we are apt to get into a sweat over our work. All right to sweat outside—does a man good; but when we get to sweating inside, we are apt to boil over, and that is where the mischief comes in. Let's keep as cool as we can—inside. Then we shall live longer and be happier.—Farm Journal.

Oxen Against Railroads.

In the Cape of Good Hope colony many of the short railroad branches and extensions do not pay, on account of ox wagon competition, says the Rhodesia Herald.

In the report for the year 1905, recently issued, the traffic manager of one of the lines reports in regard to a new 19-mile branch that as there was a very plentiful supply of wagons and an abundant supply of grass during the season ox wagon rates ruled low and the railroad secured little general traffic.

HOLDS COURT BY PHONE

Muncie Jurist Uses the Long Distance at Indianapolis.

Judge Frank L. Cass, of the Meigs, Ind., police court, held court a long distance telephone during the proceedings of the Knights of Pythias in dedicating their new building in Indianapolis.

He disposed of the cases without any trouble by the new method. The prisoner used one phone in the court chamber at Muncie and the attorneys another.

Judge Cass tried to handle all two phones so as to keep a line on the proceedings and he succeeded very nicely. The first case he heard was of a prisoner charged with plain drunk.

When the prisoner was arraigned he took the phone at Muncie and that way faced the judge, who was 60 miles away.

"What's the charge?" asked Judge Cass.

"Plain drunk," replied the chief of police.

"Guilty or not guilty?" asked Judge Cass, taking the phone from the prisoner was using.

"Guilty," was the reply.

"One dollar and costs. Call the next case," was Judge Cass's response.

The judge had no trouble disposing of the cases in which men were tried, but women liked to argue the matter.

S.S.S. DRIVES OUT RHEUMATISM

The cause of Rheumatism is a sour, acid condition of the blood, brought about by indigestion, chronic constipation, and the accumulation in the system of refuse matter which the natural eliminative organs have failed to carry out. This refuse or waste matter ferments and sours, generating uric acid which is absorbed into the blood and distributed to all parts of the body and Rheumatism gets possession of the system. One may also be born with a predisposition or tendency to Rheumatism, because like all blood diseases it can be transmitted from parent to child. The aches and pains of the disease are only symptoms which you may scatter or relieve with liniments, plasters, blisters, etc., or deaden with opiates. As soon, however, as such treatment is left off or there is any exposure to cold or dampness, or after an attack of indigestion or constipation, the wandering pains, so muscles and joints, and tender places on the flesh return, and the sufferer finds that he has merely checked the symptoms while the real cause of the disease remains in the blood. Rheumatism can never be cured while the blood remains saturated with irritating, pain-producing uric acid poison. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism by driving the cause out of the blood. It thoroughly cleanses the blood and renovates the circulation by neutralizing the acids and expelling all foreign matter from the system. S. S. S. stimulates and invigorates the blood so that instead of a weak, sour stream, constant depositing acid and corrosive matter in the muscles, joints, nerves and bones, the body is soothed and nourished by rich, health-sustaining blood which completely and permanently cures Rheumatism. S. S. S. is composed of roots, herbs and barks which possess both purifying and tonic properties just what is needed in every case of Rheumatism. ## MAKES OWN WHISKY

BILL WILLIAMS MOST NOTED SOUTHERN MOONSHINER.

Has Long Been the Despair of Georgia Revenue Officers—Destroy His Stills, but Cannot Capture Him.

Few distillery captures have been more highly prized than that made by United States Deputy Marshals Dave and Frank Riley near Oconee. Wild Bill Williams, a white man who had been a terror to the community because he was operating a very large business in open defiance to the leading citizens, was the man the officers sought, but this time, as on many other occasions, instead of fighting with his reputed steel jacket bullets, he dodged into the weeds and left his still, warm from the fires of four months, to be demolished.

Wild Bill has never been captured but once. He has been a professional moonshiner for years. Frank Riley, one of the deputies who has been this long time in search of the man, managed once to locate him and he was brought into court. For some reason Wild Bill braved the circumstances and came to Macon. The deputy caught sight of him and there was a race for life.

The supposed outlaw had no weapon of defense upon him save a barlow knife, and trusted to his feet to save him. With half an hour spent in dodging corners and climbing over and under freight cars in railway yards, the deputy outran Williams and stopped him in a struggle which lasted long enough to exhaust both men. Judge Emory Speer placed him under $600 bond, and as soon as a bondsman was secured the still operator was out again stirring cane beer and sour mash in his native haunts.

A constant effort has been made by United States Marshal George White and his force of deputies to locate this man, but twice within the last six months have the officers destroyed large outfits without capturing the operator.

The next information coming from this refiner of spirits was that which led the officers into the woods near Oconee. With rifles and revolvers they crept through the spot where the outfit was in operation and were fore-

PLAN TO ARREST FAILS

CHARGING COMPANIES WITH MAILING TELEGRAMS DENIED BY STATE.

IS UP TO POSTOFFICE DEPARTMENT

Strikers Busy Gathering New Evidence to Present to Postal Inspector—The Situation as It Exists.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 20.—Assistant Circuit Attorney Fickelissen yesterday declined to issue an information against the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies, charged by the officials of the local telegraphers' union with having accepted money for the transmission of telegrams by wire and sending them by mail instead, marked with symbols they would have received had they been sent in the regular way.

Affidavits were filed by Worth Rogers, a member of the executive committee of local No. 3, but without going fully into the matter. Mr. Fickelissen said he believed the case should be brought before the federal court. He said the evidence was not sufficient to enable him to give an opinion, and suggested that Postoffice Inspector Fulton should be consulted.

Mr. Fulton said none of the strikers' committee had been to see him, and that it would be impossible for him to give an opinion until all the evidence had been gone over thoroughly.

"There are several sides to the question," said Mr. Fulton, "and three things which, under the statutes covering the use of the United States mails, must be considered. First, it must be shown that the corporation or corporations had devised a scheme to defraud the public, then that the use of the mails had been contemplated in carrying on the project, and that the letter or letters have been deposited.

"It also must be shown whether the use of the mails for any such purpose had been done with intent to defraud, or as a result of conditions surrounding the companies' affairs. If the evidence submitted is conclusive, the matter goes to the attorney general of the United States."

Mr. Rogers was busy the greater part of the day securing new evidence. Several depositions were taken, among them that of J. J. Finn, who was an operator in the employ of the Postal company up to the time of the strike. Finn swore that on August 19, about midnight, he deposited in the postoffice about fifteen envelopes addressed to managers of the Postal company in various cities, and that there was one to five telegrams in each envelope. He says a note accompanied each to the effect that the messages were to be delivered.

Superintendent Frankel, of the Western Union, said no telegrams brought to the offices of his company in this city had been mailed, but the senders had been told that the telegrams would be subject to an indefinite delay, but would be handled as rapidly as possible.

"The messages we have mailed," said Mr. Frankel, "only have been those received from other points, and which we could not send further owing to the tie-up caused by the strike. In some cases, where the distance was not too great, we have sent a special messenger by train."

Officials of the Western Union say they have all the men they need at present and that 116 operators, all competent, were at work.

Three brokerage firms signed the agreement with the operators yesterday and the men returned to work. The firms are Morris Glaser & Co., Charles McL. Clark & Co. and Joseph Glaser & Son. Eight firms remain out, affecting nine operators.

Edward L. Parmelee, who claims to be St. Louis' oldest telegraph operator, and who was induced to leave his key by members of the union last Saturday, returned to work yesterday.

Superintendent Mudge, of the Postal, said last night that some strikers had called at the office and asked for reinstatement, but that he had told them to come back later. He said such men as he needed would be put to work, and that about 75 per cent of the usual force was now on duty.

The strikers deny this report, and say none of the men has shown the slightest sign of wavering. Chairman Magill, of the finance committee, said there would be no necessity of calling for outside aid, and that the strike could be carried on indefinitely.

Owing to the tie-up in the telegraph business President Ewing, of Local No. 3, did not learn until yesterday that his mother-in-law had died at Sterling, Ill., and had been buried. The letter announcing the death was not received until after the burial, and was sent by Mrs. Ewing, who said she had been unable to telegraph the news.

'PHONED FOR VACATION

MISSOURI CARRIER PAID $7 FOR A MESSAGE TO WASHINGTON.

MAN HAS A ROUTE OUT OF ODESSA

Wanted to Get Off From August 20 Until October 1 and Considered It Urgent Enough to Use Long Distance Phone.

Washington, Aug. 20.—Officials at the post office department were startled yesterday when they got a long distance telephone message from the post master at Odessa, Mo. The surprise was increased when they learned from the operator at the Missouri end of the wire, who was talking for Postmaster John T. Wagner, that the sole object sought by the long distance conversation was leave of absence for a rural letter carrier, serving in Lafayette county, out of Odessa, Kinfield S. Downs by name.

Downs wanted to get off from August 20 until Oct. 1. Probably the telegraphers' strike had interfered with communication with the department by that means. The case was considered urgent enough for either the postmaster or Downs to spend $7 in telephone tolls to ascertain if the carrier could have his vacation.

Chief Spillman, of the rural division, said he could have it.

Coliseum to Be Finished in Time for National Conventions.

St. Louis, Aug. 20.—Guy E. Press dispatches from Chicago say that the national democratic committee has decided to hold its convention there.

"I do not place any faith in the report," said Mr. Guitermann. "The convention committee of the Business Men's league has been given to understand that when the time arrives to select a convention place St. Louis will be given a full hearing."

TO PROTECT THE WOMEN

Wichita Citizens Organize a Vigilance Committee.

Wichita, Kas., Aug. 20.—Wichita's reign of terror continues. Not a night passes without some sort of an assault being made upon white women. Prominent citizens have organized a vigilance committee to protect them against the murderous attacks of negro thugs prevalent during the past week.

Late Sunday night the committee started out and rounded up twenty-five tough negroes from the north part of the city. Some of those taken into custody are supposed to be connected with the shooting and robberies that occurred last week.

Pearl Hearst, the negro who was arrested by the police Saturday evening, has been identified by Mrs. Clara Johnson as the man who assaulted her Saturday morning while she was working in her garden.

He is also suspected of being the one who entered the home of C. C. Hoyt last Wednesday morning at an early hour and tried to kill Mr. Hoyt by firing several times with a revolver, and succeeded in inflicting a severe flesh wound.

SHOT IN GOLDFIELD CAFE

Goldfield, Nev., Aug. 20.—R. E. H. Maunsell, a mining engineer and member of the firm of Wade & Maunsell, was shot and killed in the Sunset restaurant at 4:15 o'clock Sunday morning by George Gibson, a deputy sheriff.

The trouble arose over a remark made by Maunsell to two women who came into the restaurant with Gibson. Maunsell was 36 years old and a native of Ireland. Gibson was arrested.

WALTON BECAME A HERMIT

Clothes That He Wore Were Not Satisfactory to His Wife.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 20.—Henry A. Walton, in his youth a resident of Knox county, Ohio, who lived the life of a hermit in dugouts in Arkansas and Western Nebraska and was mourned as dead by his wife for about thirty years, died several days ago, and now the strange story of his life has come to light through officials of the pension department here.

Soon after the close of the war Walton, then a prosperous business man of Kanikakee, Ill., left his home because his wife had found fault with his slovenly habits in dress.

He went to Hannibal, Mo., whence, a short time later, he made his way to an obscure part of Arkansas. He lived the life of a hermit there for a few years, when he went to Sheridan county, Neb., where he took up a homestead and built a sod house and lived alone up to the time of his death.

Soon after he left her his wife moved to Kansas, settling near Belleville, and in 1900 she was granted a widow's pension.

Recently Walton himself filed an application for a pension, and, on making the necessary proof, it was granted. Then his wife, whose widow's pension was cut off when his was granted, learned for the first time that her husband, whom she had not heard from for nearly thirty years, was alive, but she made no effort to find him. Now that he is dead she will file another application.

YOUNG GIRL WAS SLAIN

After Which the Body Was Placed on the Rails and Mutilated.

London, Ky., Aug. 20.—Stella Smith, aged 20, of Knoxville, Tenn., was found dead on the L. and N. railroad tracks near Corbin last Friday night.

Her body had been mangled by a train and two bullet holes were in her head. At the inquest at Corbin by Judge Pennington it was found that she had been murdered and her body placed upon the railroad track.

Witnesses were found who had seen her and two men walking along the track from the depot late in the afternoon. Both men were strangers.

Saturday morning Will Rutledge, a young miner, of East Bernstadt, this county, was arrested on suspicion. Rutledge admitted that he was walking with the woman near the bridge where her body was found, but asserts that he left her and returned to town before nightfall.

The authorities are searching in the mining towns south of Corbin for a young man named Elliott, also from this county, who was seen in the vicinity of the tragedy late in the day.

CUBS SEEK NEW RECORD

NATIONAL LEAGUE BASEBALL "CHAMPS" SET PACE IN SHUTOUT VICTORIES.

TOOK PART IN 33 OF THESE GAMES

Won Twenty-Five of Them—This Is the Club to Which Ed Reulbach Belongs—He is Making a Good Record.

Chicago, Aug. 20.—Chicago's National league baseball team is a record for shutout games.

The champions have taken part in 33 games this season in which a run was not scored by the losing team. Twenty-five of these contests have been won by Chicago and eight lost, a percentage of .750.

The Cubs had played 107 games up to and including Friday, when the last shutout game was won, so it can be seen that the team has won or lost a shutout game almost every third game played, as the percentage of shutouts against games played is 82.2.

The Cubs have a shutout or more to their credit from every team in the league, the best work having been done against Boston, from whom the champions have won five, while they have shut out St. Louis four and Cincinnati three times.

Not one of the three teams have been able to shut out Chicago. Philadelphia is another team in which Chance and his men have an easy time in winning, in which the Quakers cannot score, as the Cubs have won six shutout games, while the eastern Pennsylvania club has been able to administer but one blank to the champions.

INDIANS' BURIAL PLACE

A Tomb of Ice Discovered Under the Gravel.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 20.—Harvesters working near Waikiki, on the bank of the Little Spokane river, he country home of Jay P. Graves, president of the Spokane and Inland Empire Railway system, discovered a body of ice under a covering of sand and gravel a few days ago.

John Peterson, whose estate adjoins Waikiki, found the western edge of the tomb of ice last summer, when tons of the congealed mass were used in ice boxes by ranchers in the neighborhood.

The last find resulted in the unearthing of pieces of Indian blankets and matting. These were firmly imbedded in the glacial formation, and lead the investigators to believe that this was used as the burial place for the chiefs and tribesmen high in the councils of the aborigines.

The finders have reported their discovery to experts of the Washington state college at Pullman, and scientific research is to be made into the phenomenon.

MAN IN HIS HOME

MR. GRISTLETON PHILOSOPHIZES ON SUBJECT.

Thinks There Are Few Who Are Sweet Abroad and Sour When in the Bosom of Their Family.

"You know," said Mr. Gristleton, "when I hear it said of a man that he's good as pie to everybody else, but you ought to see how he treats his folks, I don't set it down right away that the man so described must be necessarily a brute or a sneak. You see, if he is going to show peevishness anywhere, home is the proper place for it; there it can do his family and himself the least harm. It is essential to his success in life that he should put up a good front and show a smiling face to the world."

"As a matter of fact the terms are contradictory, for a man can scarcely be permanently ill tempered at home and yet present even a veneer of grace sufficient to deceive abroad. A man is likely to reveal himself at all times for what he really is; to be, in the main, either good or bad everywhere; but if he have a streak of weakness in him, why, that I would prefer he should keep for home, and so, I think would his family."

"They want him to make a good impression in the world, to appear everywhere to advantage, and they are ready to put up with his shortcomings, to make allowances, and after all they don't have to make so many, and they know his ways and they can charm away his crossness easily enough."

"The truth is that while there may be men who are saints abroad and savages at home there are not many such; most men are pretty decent, and these stories we hear about men who are so good to other people and so mean to their own are likely to be without any real foundation or greatly exaggerated or born out of a chance disclosure."

"Jones' family, for instance, know him for what he is, a strong, vigorous, able man who keeps his temper and behaves himself admirably in the world, though there he has much to contend with; and they are willing, more than willing, that he should forget his troubles and even lose his temper occasionally at home if he wants to. It gives them an opportunity to soothe and comfort him and be good to him and strengthen him. They not only don't mind, but they really like him to be natural and human; they are not disturbed because he has some failings like the rest of us, and they know he'll be serene and strong again in a minute."

"So I take little stock in the stories we hear occasionally of this man or that who is said to be good as pie to strangers but a sour chap with his own. You can set it down for a fact that the man who has the strength and courage and self-control to bear himself like a man abroad through the day is, as a rule, and despite any transient pettiness that he may there reveal, pretty sure to be a man whom they are right glad to see at night at home."

SAVED DROWNING CHUM

Heroism of a St. Louis Girl at a Lake Huron Summer Resort.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 20.—Miss Martha Morrison is the heroine of the St. Louis colony at Huronia beach, Port Huron, Mich., according to news from there today. Clad in her street clothing, she jumped into Lake Huron and rescued another St. Louis girl, Miss Nellie Ballard. She had to swim fifty feet in her street clothing, dive for her chum and knock her senseless to prevent both from drowning.

Residents at Huronia and Gratiot beach were so impressed by Miss Morrison's bravery that they gave a dinner in her honor at one of the Port Huron hotels, Saturday night. Miss Morrison is the daughter of Robert W. Morrison and Miss Ballard is the daughter of James R. Ballard, a millionaire.

Concrete Lighthouse.

By the use of concrete a tall lighthouse was constructed in a short period of time at the Point de la Coudre, at the mouth of the Gironde river, in France. The building is 225 feet high and about 25 feet in diameter at the base. It was finished in nine months after the beginning of the work, and cost $90,000. The haste was due to the fact that the sea threatened to wash away the old structure.

WHERE IS THE SILVER BALL?

The One Sedalia and Jefferson City Used to Battle For?

Years ago, when Sedalia, Jefferson City, Booneville and other towns in this section of the state were represented by baseball teams, a silver ball was held up as the prize for the champion team of the circuit.

Each team won the ball alternately, and for a long time it was deposited in a bank at the state capital town. Later, Sedalia won the ball from Jefferson City, and soon after the baseball circuit "busted," and since then no one has heard of the ball, despite numerous inquiries as to its whereabouts.

Recently a Sedalian visiting at Booneville met a number of old-time ball players, several of whom asked about the ball. The visitor, a young man, was not thoroughly acquainted with the ball and its history, consequently could not say where it is, but promised to look up the matter. Old-time Sedalia ball players now living here were seen and asked about the prize, but they, too, had forgotten what became of it.

"THANK GOD," HE CRIED

Saw Load of 40 Lives Was Safe and Then Fell Dead.

Elmer Peckham, 23 years old, a divinity student at Barrington, Ill., while driving a party of forty Sunday school children and their teachers on a hayrack wagon to Lake Zurich dropped dead from his seat after the wagon and its occupants narrowly escaped demolition by a freight train.

The hayrack party was a merry one. The children were singing their Sunday school songs and no one was aware of the impending danger. The tracks of the C. and N. W. rail road are on a curve at that point and the horses were on the track before Peckham saw the locomotive bearing down on them. Everybody seemed to see the danger at the same time. Children screamed and teachers went into hysterics.

Peckham, however, kept a cool head and whipped up his horse.

The wagon with its load of children had missed being hit by an inch. Peckham stood up and cried, "Thank God!" and fell to the ground dead.

UP-TO-DATE CRACKSMAN

HE USED ONLY A PORTABLE OXY-ACETYLENE BLOWPIPE, SAYS A CONSULAR REPORT.

AN UNAIDED ROBBER IN DRESDEN

Manufacturers of Safes Will Now Be Compelled to Fight the Scientific Burglar With His Own Weapons.

Consul Thomas H. Norton, writing in the United States consular reports from Chemnitz, says that the confidence of German manufacturers of safes in the resistance of their wares against ordinary safe blowing operations has been rudely shaken by the recent achievements of a single, unaided robber in Dresden and other cities, says the New York Evening Sun. The details of his last operation are as follows:

In a hotel a room was secured, which was situated immediately above the office of a money changer. At night a hole was pierced in the ceiling of this office. By the use of a drill and saw a circular piece of the flooring was easily raised. Beneath lay a thick layer of cement. A small orifice was made in this, and an umbrella shoved down into the space below. The umbrella was attached firmly from above, and when opened received without noise all the fragments of cement which were dislodged as the hole was enlarged so as to allow of the easy passage of a person. By means of a rope ladder the robber was easily made into the room below. Curtains were drawn, and with heavy blankets a tent was constructed around the safe so thick that no ray of light could pass through. Next the robber brought down two cylinders of compressed oxygen and an acetylene generator, charged with calcium carbide and water. With these he was able to produce a blowpipe flame of such intensity that steel fuses in it like lead in an ordinary gas jet. It required but a brief space of time to melt away so much of the door that all the contents of the safe were accessible. They were carried to the room above. At an early hour the robber left his lodgings and disappeared without trace.

It is evident from this experience that the builders of safes must provide for new contingencies in their constructions. The simple, light, acetylene generators, now in widespread use, and the equally simple oxygen generators, charged with water and sodium peroxide, or the heavier cylinders of compressed oxygen, placed at the service of the intelligent crook the possibilities of opening the strongest safes in existence rapidly and noiselessly, provided the operator can be screened from observation.

Some large safes are so disposed that they are under frequent observation by watchmen looking through windows. Usually the observation is confined to the doors of bank vaults or the like, although in the case of globular safes it practically extends to all exposed sides. In the greater majority of cases existing safes would offer next to no difficulty to a skillful cracksmen if able to work without being seen. It is evident that owners will be forced henceforth to adopt such measures as will reduce to a minimum all possibilities of access to free standing, movable safes or the hidden sides of safes imbedded in cement or masonry.

Manufacturers of safes will, on the contrary, be impelled to fight the scientific burglar with his own weapons. In somewhat the same fashion by which time locks prevent the opening of the lock of a safe during certain hours it will be comparatively easy to introduce into safe construction chemico-mechanical devices which, during a limited time, would render it either fatal or physically impossible to remain in the vicinity of a safe or vault where the walls or door are tampered with to such an extent as to allow access to the interior. By the use of a very simple form of apparatus containing potassium cyanide and sulphuric acid a robber would expose himself to the deadly fumes of prussic acid.

Less dangerous, through possibilities of accident to those regularly using a safe, would be the employment of substances crippling a safe blower or forcing him to an instantaneous retreat. The volatilization of a few drops of ethylchloroacetate would cause such profuse and persistent weeping that one in the immediate neighborhood would be temporarily blinded if he persisted in remaining. The breaking of a tube of liquid ammonia would render immediate withdrawal imperative under peril of suffocation. Several similar compounds are at the service of constructors. Eventually the daring burglar with sufficient scientific training might venture to face the unknown dangers of a safe provided with more or less effective neutralizing agents for the concealed possibilities of defense; but certainly for some time, at slight expense, effective protection can be devised against the attack of the scientific cracksmen with the portable oxy-acetylene blowpipe.

NEGRO HELD FOR KILLING

Whisky Caused Quarrel With White Man.

Troy, Mo., Aug. 20.—Tully Phoebus, a white man, 24 years old, was killed here at midnight Saturday by a blow over the heart, given by Herbert Bragg, a negro, of the same age.

The men were under the influence of liquor, and went into the street to settle a dispute when Bragg struck Phoebus with his fist. Phoebus died before a physician could be summoned.

At an inquest Sunday afternoon Bragg was held to the circuit court. He is in jail.

Lincoln county is local option, and it is said that the whisky that caused the killing had been bought at Gilmore, in St. Charles county, by Bragg.

KNIGHTS OF KHORASSAN

PLUMED KNIGHTS ARE ASSEMBLED IN THE CENTENNIAL STATE.

THE IMPERIAL PALACE MEETING

Organization Is Composed Only of Knights of Pythias, and Stands to It as Mystic Shrine Does to Masons.

Colorado Springs, Col., Aug. 20.—Colorado Springs is today an oasis for plumed knights from all parts of the country, who have crossed the hot sands of the desert to take part in the week's festivities attending the imperial palace meeting of the Dramatic Order of Knights of Khorassan. The first business session was held today. The afternoons and evenings of each day of the convention will be devoted to visits to points of interest in Pike's Peak region. Imperial Prince W. D. Hadfield, of Peoria, Ill., is presiding at the sessions of the imperial palace.

According to present indications, the next imperial prince will be D. F. Sumner, Jr., of Cincinnati, who is now imperial bashaw. William Beaty, of Toledo, will probably be elected imperial bashaw; Charles Standbury, of Los Angeles, imperial kadi; H. W. Belding, of St. Louis, imperial secretary, and C. B. Frase, of Los Angeles, imperial treasurer. B. D. Guffy, of Louisville, and F. R. Lander, of Cleveland, will be retained as imperial trustees.

The Knights of Khorassan is an organization composed only of members of Knights of Pythias, and it stands in relation to that order as the Mystic Shrine does to Masonry. The order is "the playground of Pythianism, and the local members are determined to maintain its reputation for "high jinks" during the present national convention. The present membership of the Knights of Khorassan is 32,000, scattered all over the country.

Among the important business matters to be considered, in addition to the election of officers and the selection of a place for the next convention, are the revision of the ritual and the amendment of the by-laws. Several thousand dollars have been raised by the knights and the citizens of Colorado Springs, and the fund will be used in providing entertainment and premiums. Cash prizes will be given for the best drilled temples, the temple coming the longest distance and the temple making the best showing in the daylight and night parades.

Among the excursions arranged for the week are trips to the Cave of the Winds, Cripple Creek, the Cheyenne canons, the Cliff Dwellers ruins and the Garden of the Gods.

INSECT'S BITE MAY KILL

A Strong Argument Against Wearing of Short Sleeves.

Warsaw, Ind., Aug. 20.—Following a crusade by a Warsaw minister against the wearing of short sleeves by women, Mrs. Hugh Kingery is in a critical condition as a result of being bitten by a large caterpillar, which dropped from a tree upon her bare arm while walking.

An instant later, and before she had an opportunity to remove the object, she felt a sharp sting and discovered that she had been bitten. Mrs. Kingery is under the care of a physician.

The poison from the bite has spread throughout her arm, which is swollen to twice its natural size, and it is feared that the poison may spread to the entire system and cause death.

I will mail you free to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my book on either dyspepsia, the heart or the kidneys. Troubles of the stomach, heart or kidneys are merely the symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment and not the cause. Weak stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean stomach weakness, always. And the heart and kidneys as well have the controlling of inside nerves. Weaken these nerves and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the inside nerves. Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by the W. E. Bard Drug Co.

Testimony easily investigated.

The strongest endorsement of merit.

The best proof. Read it:

Mrs. K. W. Daniels, of 901 South Harrison avenue, Sedalia, Mo., says: "It is over two years ago that I read Doan's Kidney Pills. Previous to that time I had suffered severely from misery in my back and kidneys. It was not constant, but the recurrence of the pain and other symptoms were far too frequent to be pleasant. One day my husband brought home a box of Doan's Kidney Pills from W. E. Bard's drug store and induced me to try them. The result was a complete cure, and since then I have scarcely known what it is to have a touch of backache."

SLEPT FORTY-EIGHT HOURS

Said It Seemed as Though He Had Merely Taken a Nap.

Willard Peck, the young man who went to sleep at Slickles' bathhouse and could not be awakened, came out of his cataleptic trance at noon, none the worse for his experience, says a Toledo, O., dispatch. Peck slept just two days and two nights. His awakening at noon was peculiar.

The first sign of returning consciousness was noticed about 11 o'clock, when the sleeper began to tug at the covers in an effort to pull the cover from his body. Watchers at his bedside handed him his clothes, which he began to put on with his eyes closed and without uttering a word.

After lacing his shoes with his left hand, he reached for his trousers, which were not within grasp. With a start he sat upright, his eyes opened and he was once more in possession of his senses.

Peck immediately inquired as to the length of time he had been asleep. When told that two days and two nights had passed in slumber, he declared that it seemed as though he had merely taken a nap during the afternoon. He was not hungry, having been fed while asleep. He realized no ill effects and immediately went to work at the bathhouse.

A HOBO CHICKEN STORY

IT HOPS ON TRAIN AND RIDES
BRAKE BEAM ACROSS CONTINENT.

"MAUD" IS ONLY VAGABOND HEN

Given That Name Because She is Just Like the Mule in the Sunday Comic Supplement,
Mr. Burke Says.

Hen: Probably akin to Latin canere, to sing, and originally meaning a singer (Zool.) The female of a domestic fowl.

Vagabond: One who wanders from place, having no fixed dwelling, or not abiding in it, and usually without the means of honest livelihood; a vagrant; a tramp; hence, a worthless person; a rascal.—Extracts from Mr.
Noah Webster's Unabridged Dictionary.

When is a hen?
This is the palpitating question that is agitating the employees of the Great Northern railroad and to which there is apparently no answer, says
the Seattle, Washington, Times. The question arose through the peculiar actions of Maud.

Maud, according to Noah Webster,
the dictionary man, is a hen. According to the same authority she is a vagabond, a worthless person—a rascal. The career of Maud, short as it has been, has been filled with excitement. Maud is an unusual hen.
She is a hen of distinction, a traveled hen, a hobo. She rides brake beams on limited trains and her cackle has been heard in many states. Here is Maud's latter-day history:

Several days ago in Minneapolis
some men were loading chickens on board a train. One of the chickens got away and made a wild dash for liberty. There was some excitement attached to the escape of the chicken.
Nobody knew that it was Maud—
then. All they saw was a speckled chicken of the female sex chasing herself around a right-of-way with a howling mob of humans in pursuit.
Then the chicken disappeared.

This ends the first chapter of the story. The second chapter is as follows:

Oriental limited No. 1 on the Great Northern sped on its way across prairies and mountains. The golden wheat fields of North Dakota thrilled with the shrill whistle of the locomotive. Coyotes off the plains of Montana loped fearfully away from the tracks, appalled at the glaring headlights they saw through the dark watches of the night. The dread defiles of the rocky Rockies gave back thunderous echoes as the train sped through cuts and across trestles.

At Leavenworth, which is in the state of Washington, the yardmaster
was on hand when the wearied
coaches came to rest for a few moments. His duty was to see that there were no tramps concealed under cars. So he looked under them
all. He found no hoboes, but he did find one lone, wearied hen. The hen was covered with dust. Her feathers were filled with gravel. Her craw was empty of food. It was Maud.

People on the train recognized Maud. They recognized in the hobo chicken that was riding on the brake beams the fearless hen that at Minneapolis had eluded all pursuers and disappeared. Maud was hailed with acclamations. Thenceforth Maud need no longer ride on brake beams.
It was Maud to the baggage car.

C. H. Burke, who lives at 408 Wall street, is a brakeman on Oriental limited No. 1. He admired the heroism of Maud. He took possession of her, and when the train reached Seattle he took Maud home.
She is still at Burke's home—unless she has broken away over night and is on her way to San Francisco or the Orient.

Maud is well fed at the residence of Burke. Her empty crop is now full of bursting. Her ruffled feathers are again smooth, for the Oriental limited came in late Friday night and Maud had nearly 48 hours to recover from the effects of her journey.

Burke vouches no theories as to why Maud got on the brake beams
of a train that was coming to Seattle.
He says she did it on purpose, for he is certain she is a hen that doesn't do any thing blindly.

Burke himself named the wandering hen Maud. He did it because, he says, she is just like the mule in the Sunday comic supplement. She kicked him in the eye while he was trying to get acquainted with her.

Social is Postponed.

The social to have been given tonight at the home of Mrs. G. W.
Kemp, on West Tenth street, for the benefit of the M. E. church, South, has been postponed until Thursday night, on account of the rain.

MOBERLY HAS FIRST LID

Sheriff Appoints Deputies Who Keep Saloons Closed.

Moberly, Mo., Aug. 20.—For the first time in the history of Moberly,
the lid was on tight Sunday.
Sheriff Huston came from Hunsville a few days ago and notified the Moberly saloonists that they must observe the Sunday closing law.

He also appointed two deputy sheriffs to keep a strict watch for offenders. The result was that Moberly
was, on Sunday, a strictly dry town
so far as the saloons were concerned.

"Beauty Doctors" Copy Old Rome.
Juvenal, the Roman satirist, writes indignantly of the absurd waste of time given to the care of the complexion, of the lotions and jellies and powders for the preservation of the skin.
"But anything overlaid with so many of changed cosmetics, and a poultice with flour, both baked and boiled, shall we call it a face or a sore? This thing, swollen and ridiculous, the unfortunate husband has to contemplate—only for her lovers does she wash her skin
clean." The modern beauty doctors, writes Mrs. H. W. Nevelson in the Fortnightly Review, have plagiarized their methods from ancient Rome—
the massage, the stroking, the oiling
—and would be willing to admit that some of the most valuable secrets, including the "Roman mask," which eradicated wrinkles, are lost to them.

CARE OF MARE AND FOAL.

A Little Extra Trouble Will Prove Profitable.

Colts are valuable nowadays. A good one will sell at weaning time for about as much as a matured horse three or four years ago. Mr. W. L. Houser gave some sensible advice about the mare and foal in his talk before Wisconsin farmers. He says it is well to keep pretty close watch of the mare at foaling time. You may save the colt by a little help. After it comes it may need a little assistance to get the first milk from the mother, not usually, but sometimes that is the case, and you can well afford to give the help. Thoroughly disinfect the navel cord, and do it frequently until it is healed. The greatest loss among young colts is due to the so-called navel disease which results in dullness, swollen joints and frequently death.

Feed the mare liberally while she is raising the colt. Oats and bran and pasture are the best feed. The colt will learn to eat some oats and bran at an early age if you will give him a chance, and will do well as a result. If you must work the mare, keep the colt in the barn during the day, letting it to the mother three or four times during that day, if possible.
I like to wean my colts at about four months of age. If they have been taught to eat grain, they will make the shift without any loss of flesh or impairment of the growth. A little cow's milk (skim milk is good) helps amazingly to keep the colt going along at this time. Feed liberally of oats and bran, about all the colt will eat, and keep him a-going in this way until he is a year old, when he should be thrifty and strong, weighing from 850 to 1,000 pounds. He will not be much trouble to you after this time.

SHEEP AND HORSE NOTES.

Great big stallions and small mares
should never be mated to breed.

While half blood horses may do well enough to work, they should never be used for breeding purposes.

A flock of 50 breeding sheep is a good size for the man conducting a general system of farming.

Taking everything into consideration, the draft mare is the most profitable one for the farmer to raise.

Your sheep may need their hoofs trimmed if you didn't attend to this.
Do you notice any of them walking lame?

The best place to mark sheep is on the rump. Venetian red and linseed oil will make a distinctive mark. Never use tar.

Men who do not like sheep should not keep them, but at the present prices wouldn't it pay to stretch a point so as to take advantage of the profits along with the other fellows?

Two Litters a Year.

It pays to raise two litters of pigs
a season, though few farmers do this.
The advantage lies in the double use of the money invested in stock, buildings and appliances. Often it requires no greater expense for hiring labor to raise two litters of pigs than
one. Many of our farmers, however, are not well enough supplied with equipments to dare risk the raising of pigs in the winter. The greatest obstacle they find is the lack of a protein feed in the fall and winter. This problem should be worked out on as many farms as possible on account of the added profit.

An Open Session August 29.

The students of Central Business college will hold an open session at the school auditorium on the night of Thursday, August 29.

After Twelve Years

By Sophie May.

(Copyright, by Joseph B. Bowles.)

Miss Hepsey hung the tea-kettle
over the fire and sat down to think.
"Those hens! Can Celinda be trusted to let them out in the morning and shut them up at night? Will she remember what I said about the setting
hen, and the eggs in the yellow bowl?
No!" said Miss Hepsey mournfully to her own thoughts. "If I conclude to go to Portland, I must just bid good-by to my chickens before I go!"

"Hepsey," said Aunt Maguire, putting her head in at the door, "don't forget that gray flannel; but you mustn't pay too much for it; I'd rather go without." Aunt Maguire disappeared, with her widow's cap tilted on one side of her pepper-and-salt curls,
and her niece mused on.

But, unfortunately, addled eggs were not the least of her troubles. She knew just as well as if Mme. Demor-est had told her, that a faded, brown alpaca is no dress to make any impression in—only a dowdy impression—
and that upon this visit to Portland depended a great deal more than a few yards of flannel or a brood or two of chickens.

There was Hiram Stackpole, living not three squares from the family she was about to visit. She should meet him; how could it be avoided unless she always kept herself veiled to the chin? She trembled at the thought, but at the same time chid herself for trembling. Why did she care for meeting Hiram Stackpole any more than Deacon Nutting? He surely would not speak to her unless she would give some sign of recognition.

At seven next morning the Poole-ville stage drew up before Aunt Maguire's door for Miss Hepsey. At the post office they stopped to take the mail bag and a young man.

"Why, Fred Tracy, how do you do?"
exclaimed Miss Hepsey, her eyes brimming over with welcome, and the youthful look flashing back to her face, giving a momentary glimpse of her departed freshness and bloom.

"Are you going back to Portland, Fred?" asked Miss Hepsey, the careworn look returning to her face.

"Yes; I've rusticated three days, and that is all I can spare. I'm in Stack-pole's store," he continued, carelessly.
"Ahem! I believe he is an old acquaintance of yours? I happened to mention once that I had consuls at Pooleville, and then he asked me if I knew a lady there by the name of Hepsibah Dillon."

"Ah!"
A queer little sparkle shot out of Miss Hepsey's eyes. It might have been pleasure, it might have been pain.

"Yes. He was very particular to inquire just how you were situated?"
At last, with the usual flourish and energetic crying out at the horses, the stage drew up at the depot, and in five minutes Miss Hepsey was on her way to Portland and to her fate.

With the noisy wheels Miss Hepsey's thoughts flew backward to the days when she had been young and beautiful. Hiram had loved her then, there could be no doubt of that.
His looks had said it a thousand times. And even if looks and tones and signs and intimations had been all at fault, had he not "told her all his heart," in written language, strong and unmistakable?

She would never forget that letter,
for it was the last he ever wrote. Not for lack of response on her part. No,
she had written immediately, and there had been no equivocation in her answer.

And then the sweet expectation that had rested over her through days, weeks, and even months, until hope deferred had made her heart sick! He never wrote again; he never came;
and if her letter said too much, or if he suddenly discovered he had mistaken his own feelings, she never knew.

Somewhat less than a year after this, Mr. Stackpole's sister, Lucy, who had come to Pooleville on a visit, died suddenly at Fred Tracy's Uncle John's, and Hepsey was there with her good sense, her good taste, her quiet nerves and ready hands, when Hiram came to take his dead sister for her burial in the ancestral tomb.

He came into the darkened parlor unexpectedly to Hepsey, as she stood by the casket, putting rosemary and Persian lilacs in the still hands that had unwittingly done her a grievous wrong.

Nothing passed between the two old friends but such looks of sad sympathy, as strangers might give and receive about a bier, and then Hep-sey, who was needed no longer, went away, with her heart full of wounded
love and proud regret.

This was twelve years ago. She had never seen him since. And now they would meet again. Well, what cared she? When a past event is dead and buried, why should its ghost walk?
There is always enough to do and bear in the living present. For instance, at this very moment she ought to be thinking out the plot of a new story, for Miss Hepsey's facile pen was all she could depend upon for the winning of her daily bread.

Before the cars stopped at Portland
—long enough, before she had quite recovered her equipoise and made her entrance at Dr. Pond's with her usual gentle self-possession.

"I am so glad," said Mrs. Pond, cordially, after the first greeting was over, "so very glad you have come in season for my little social supper tomorrow! I was afraid Aunt Maguire's

Mr. Stackpole again! Hepsey was glad the name had been spoken so many times that day that the strangeness was wearing off.

The next evening Hepsey came into the long, bright parlor, dressed in her best black silk, a much-enduring garment, that had been turned and stiffened with gin; but then black silks, like dead men, tell no tales—and she looked very sweet and attractive with her fresh blue ribbons and her peaceful face.

Mr. Stackpole thought so when he came in late in the evening. After a few words with the hostess, he slipped into a shadowy corner, and looked eagerly over the room until he saw Miss Hepsey sitting in a deep window,
a little aside. Then he stood gazing at her face as though he wished to

"HAPPY" WESTCOTT OUT

Former Sedalian Now Playing Ball at Paola, Kas.

Roy Gill, who was signed up by Manager McFarland, of the Oklahoma City team and then turned loose because the management would not ratify McFarland's action, has just been signed up by Joplin and will probably take the place of Happy Westcott on the team. Westcott is playing ball in Paola, Kas.

Manager Armstrong of the Joplin team is prospective manager of the Topeka team. It is known that Armstrong has been offered the management of the champions and with no strings on the team by other persons. Armstrong has not made known whether he is to accept the offer or not. Two members of the Joplin team are being considered as possible managers for the Joplin team in case of a change.

When Eddie Noyes won the ten inning game of a few days ago from Oklahoma City by a home run in the ninth inning, he found $15 waiting for him at the plate. This is the game in which Young Joe Woods won the Western association strikeout record by striking out seventeen men, which is two more than the record made by Tessie Alderman in 1905.

THE PRECIPICE YAWNED

For the Young Woman Before Her Escort's Eyes.

Canon City, Colo., Aug. 20.—Miss Eugenia Gold, aged 30, a trained nurse of 232 West Fifth avenue, South Canon City, fell on a 200 foot precipice on the north side of Twin Sisters mountain in the Sangre de Christo range, eight miles south of Howard, Fremont county, shortly after 8 o'clock last Saturday and was instantly killed.

Only one person, Adolphus Latham, of Howard, the young woman's companion, witnessed the accident.

REGARDING RAILROADS

IT IS NOT LIKELY THAT THE C. & A. WILL BE PROSECUTED IN "REBATE" CASES.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

After an all-day conference Monday at the department of justice in Washington to determine whether or not the government will prosecute the Chicago and Alton railroad for granting rebates to the Standard Oil company, Attorney General Bonaparte stated that he would address a communication to Judge Landis at Chicago and would make no announcement relative to the conference of yesterday until after he hears from Judge Landis.

Other parties to the conference were equally noncommittal, but the impression prevails that the agreement made when the officials of the Alton road will stand and that, irrespective of the action of Judge Landis and the federal grand jury in Chicago, there will be no effective prosecution of the Alton.

No 2-Cent Fare in Kansas.

There will be no 2-cent fare in Kansas until the next legislature has met. What that body will do about the matter is problematical. This statement is made on the authority of George W. Kanaval, chairman of the board of railroad commissioners.

It is Mr. Kanaval's contention that Kansas, through its legislature last winter, made a verbal contract with the attorneys for the railroads of Kansas that in case the law makers did not insist upon the passage of a straight 2-cent passenger rate bill the roads would agree to the passage of a mileage book bill.

Fast Train in the Ditch.

Passenger train No. 8, the fast train between Texarkana and St. Louis on the Iron Mountain line, is in a ditch at Alicia, Ark., says a Newport, Ark., dispatch of the 19th, and meager reports received here are that several persons have been killed and many injured.

The wreck occurred at 9:30 o'clock Monday night, and is said to be due to a broken rail. Assistance was sent at once from Alicia, but the wrecking crew had not returned up to midnight.

Still a Railless Railroad.

Since the '70s almost every newspaper man in the vicinity of Springfield, Joplin, Jefferson City, Carthage and even Fort Scott, Kas., has served an apprenticeship in completing the Bagnell branch of the Missouri Pacific railroad, says the Kansas City Journal.

On paper this road has been built in many directions. From a branch line it has grown regularly every spring for the last thirty years into a trunk line of vast ramifications.

Stealing From Railroad Men.

Dog thieves are playing havoc with the canines of the officials and employees of the Missouri Pacific. The latest is a report from Trainmaster Walter Merrifield that some unknown miscreant stole his fine Scotch collie from his home recently.

Several weeks ago Jack Bowers, a train dispatcher, lost a fine dog of the same breed, while a few days later "Jim" Richards also lost a Scotch collie pup.

Many Injured in a Wreck.

Passenger train No. 3 on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul was wrecked yesterday at Keystone, thirty miles west of Cedar Rapids, Ia. Twenty persons were injured, several seriously. The wreck was caused by the train colliding with a handcar, on a 20-foot embankment. The express and mail cars went down the embankment.

Engineer Hurt in Collision.

A south-bound passenger train running between Norwich and New London, Conn., collided with a north-bound freight train, which was about to back upon a siding at Allyn Point, yesterday.

Engineer Frank Benjamin, of the passenger engine, was badly hurt, and several of the passengers were bruised and cut.

800 Men on a Strike.

Fred Holmes, formerly employed in the office of Master Carbuilder Mitchell, at the local Katy shops, now holding a good position with the Mexican Central railway in Mexico, writes relatives here that 800 men, Missouri Pacific train No. 9, due employed at the shops there, are on a strike, asking for higher wages.

Hospital Arrivals.

Following are new arrivals at the Katy hospital:
H. A. Mullins, bridgeman, Atoka, I. T.
Joe Tkac, fireman, Denison, Tex.
Earl Taylor, boilermaker helper, Franklin Junction Mo.
C. Burrell, bridgeman, Peck, I. T.
J. W. West, boilermaker helper, Parsons, Kas.

Prostrated By the Heat.

Claude Wilkerson, a Katy painter, was prostrated by the heat while at work at the shops yesterday afternoon, and had to be removed to his home in the company ambulance.

Route Agent H. L. White, of the Pacific Express company, went to Ottaville this forenoon.

Dominic Stoffel, Katy claim agent, went to Kansas City, via the Missouri Pacific, this morning.

J. W. McAdams, a Katy conductor, resumed work today, after a month's layoff, visiting in the North.

Division Engineer A. P. Morrison, of the Missouri Pacific, went to Warsaw this afternoon on business.

There is a vacancy for a brakeman on the Katy's Parsons-Nevada local, with Sunday layover at Parsons.

Steve Camies, a railway telegrapher for the Pennsylvania railway, Columbus, O., and wife, accompanied by "Doc" Tanner, a former Missouri Pacific conductor, went to Kansas City this morning for a brief visit.

"Pit" Faust, a Missouri Pacific machinist, went to Kansas City this morning for a short business visit.

James Boyd, a former Missouri Pacific boilermaker here, is now working at his trade at White Fish, Mont.

George Brittendall, division line-man for the Missouri Pacific, went to Lexington this morning on business.

Missouri Pacific train No. 9, due here at 1:50 a. m., arrived at 3:34 this morning, being delayed at St. Louis.

Today is homeseekers' day on the Missouri Pacific and Katy. No. 5 on the Katy will be run in two sections.

Frank Pearson, Missouri Pacific fireman out of St. Louis, returned there this forenoon, after visiting relatives here.

Mike Murney, brakeman on the Lexington branch, resumed work this forenoon, after a few days' layoff, relieving Arthur Lister.

P. C. Keyes, a south end Katy brakeman, who has been running with Walter Ferrier, is now running on Conductor Reid's car.

G. F. Tuley, a railway mail clerk, is arranging to remove his family and household goods to Kansas City to reside on September 5.

Miss Blanche Pettit, of the same place, will arrive here tomorrow for a ten days' visit with Mr. Games' relative, N. J. Crawford, a conductor.

A. H. Smith, a Missouri Pacific painter, who injured his eye at the shops last week by being struck with a piece of steel, is getting along fairly well.

N. C. Smith, trainman on the Missouri Pacific, has accepted a run as baggageman on the Missouri Pacific between here and St. Louis, on trains Nos. 21 and 22.

G. F. Fleming, a Frisco train dispatcher at Springfield, Mo., wife and son, returned home yesterday, after visiting Mr. Fleming's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fleming.

Charles D. Shaw, of St. Louis, has been assigned to a run as railway mail clerk on the St. Louis-Parsons run, vice Robert Bond, resigned to accept an office position in St. Louis.

Supt. Finney, of the Katy, today issued a circular requesting conductors and auditors to eject from freight trains all passengers who refuse to sign the release form.

T. J. Warren, Katy roadmaster, went to Kansas City Junction today to begin work of laying 66-pound steel rails on the Kansas City division, instead of 52-pound rails.

G. W. Sitters, truckman at the new Missouri Pacific shops, accompanied by his wife and son, will leave tonight for a two weeks' visit with Mrs. Sitter's mother, at Anna, Ill.

Rae Bertchle, son of Katy Conductor J. J. Bertchle and wife, who is employed in the auditing department of the Katy at Oklahoma City, arrived here last night for a ten days' visit.

Roy Kemmerly, formerly a boilermaker at the new Missouri Pacific shops, now holding a good position at his trade at the Katy shops at Parsons, is here for a few days' visit with friends.

Roy Walker, a street car conductor, who fell from a Grand avenue car near Warren avenue Sunday, is in a rather serious condition at his home. He will be confined there for at least a month.

Chester Holland, son of Ed Holland, and recently employed as helper in the local Missouri Pacific baggage room, has been appointed night baggagemaster, succeeding his father, Edgar Holland, resigned.

George Ferrell, Katy conductor; C. R. Johnson, train auditor; Pete Abbott, porter, and John Evans, special officer, went to Nevada this morning to appear as witnesses in the case of Harry Hooker charged with attempting to kill Auditor Johnson.

TO ABOLISH UNFAIR LIST

MR. JAMES W. VAN CLEAVE, OF ST. LOUIS, SUES FEDERATION OF LABOR.

FIRST MOVE OF THE EMPLOYERS

Action of Manufacturers' Head Folds Decision to Raise $3,000,000 for Campaign for the Battle.

Washington, Aug. 20.—One of the most important fights between organized labor and capital was begun in the supreme court here yesterday, when James W. Van Cleave, of St. Louis, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, entered suit against the American Federation of Labor and all its affiliated organizations to forbid the publication of its unfair list.

The company of which Mr. Van Cleave is president is on the unfair list of the American Federation of Labor, having been put there at the request of the Iron Molders' union, which has a grievance against that company.

The unfair list is published under the caption, "We Don't Patronize." The list is published in the journals of the unions, and all members of labor organizations know that the firms and individuals and trademarks articles set down in the list are not union firms, organizations or goods.

While the application is made by Mr. Van Cleave, it is generally for the benefit of all those who have been boycotted by union labor, and was inspired by the National Association of Manufacturers, for whom Judge Davenport, of New London, Conn., is the legislative agent while congress is in session.

The suit is the first move in the fight the association of employers or labor declared on organized labor at its meeting recently, when the association determined to finance a council of employers' associations to the extent of $3,000,000, if necessary, to break what is termed the "tyrannical rule of organized labor."

Plans Industrial Coalition.

New York, Aug. 20.—Delegates from various manufacturing and employers' associations met here yesterday and informally discussed the proposition to form a national federation, which shall have for its purpose the furtherance of peace in the industrial world by combining the efforts of all the employing interests.

The meeting, which was held behind closed doors at the Waldorf-Astoria, was presided over by Jas. W. Van Cleave, of St. Louis, president of the National Association of Manufacturers.

After a general discussion of the proposition, it was decided to adjourn until next month in order to permit the delegates to return to their homes and consult with the organization.

Mr. Van Cleave will call a meeting some time next month, when it is expected the federation will be formed, a name given and officers elected.

Wind and Rain Storm.

The rain which fell last night was general throughout the country, as was learned from people in from the various sections, and settles the corn crop, but is damaging to the wheat and oats still standing in the shock.

The wind, which was quite strong before the rain began to fall, did no damage so far as heard from.

WOMAN PINIONED ARMS

White Husband Used Knife on Lucy With Fatal Effect.

Catlettsburg, Ky., Aug. 26.—While Mrs. Fannie Elliott held Peter Lucy, with his arms pinioned close to his sides, her husband, John Elliott, literally cut him to pieces with a pocket knife, as Lucy sank to the ground mortally wounded his last words were: "John Elliott has killed me."

The affair happened on Chadwick's creek, about four miles south of this city, as the participants in the row and a number of others were returning home from a box supper at the Oakland church.

FALLING POLE KILLS BOY

Accident Breaks Up an Old Soldiers' Reunion.

Eureka Springs, Ark., Aug. 20.—The skull of the 12-year-old son of John Ratcliff, of Madison county, was crushed by the falling center pole of the big tent during the old soldiers' reunion yesterday. Fragments of the skull were removed, but the boy died within the hour.

The crowd was watching an acrobat who had just signaled, "I'm off," when the event and the remainder of the program were abandoned and the meeting broke up.

DYNAMITE ON A BRIDGE

Second Attempt in Two Weeks to Wreck Santa Fe Train.

Wichita, Kas., Aug. 20.—An attempt was made last night to wreck north-bound Santa Fe passenger train No. 18 four miles north of this city. Dynamite was placed on a bridge, but was discovered and removed before the train struck the bridge.

This makes the second attempt to wreck No. 18 this month. Two weeks ago a switch was sprung open, but was observed by the engineer in time to stop his train.

SANDBAGGED AND ROBBED

California Ranchman Is Robbed of $1,000 in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 20.—John Schmidt, a wealthy ranchman of Southern California, living not far from Los Angeles, was sandbagged, drugged and robbed in this city early yesterday. At 4 o'clock yesterday morning he found himself in the tenderloin district, recovering from the attack. He was able to give a clear account of the affair to the police, which led to the arrest of two young men who later admitted they had drugged and robbed Schmidt.

The Californian says he was struck from behind on the street. The next thing he remembers was two men leaning over him in a bathroom. They gave him something which he claims contained knockout drops, and when he regained consciousness he discovered that all his money, nearly $1,000 was gone. The money was not found on the men when arrested.
